Roman's 1, gives us the picture of a life that is separated from the life of god „there are no override buttons in this chapter or for that matter any where else in this book, override, that means a trump card, like, a preacher said ur going to heaven, boy don't matter what u do now ur secure, or I'm eternally secure, well it's true if ur life is not fitting this discription,

ROMANS CHAPTER 1 KJV - King James Version

In the Bahá'í Faith, faith is meant, first, conscious knowledge, and second, the practice of good deeds, ultimately the acceptance of the divine authority of the Manifestations of God. In the religion's view, faith and knowledge are both required for spiritual growth. Faith involves more than outward obedience to this authority, but also must be based on a deep personal understanding of ...
