The Etap 37s is described in company literature as a pilothouse yacht designed for the offshore sailor seeking comfort, safety, performance and style - nothing unusual there. What is unusual is Etap's assurance that its yachts are unsinkable. This is a huge claim and one that will no doubt give rise to lively debate at the yacht club.

The concept that has driven Etab since its inception has been design and construction of modern cruising boats that are unsinkable and meet three strict criteria. First, when an Etab boat is holed and flooded, it must maintain freeboard equivalent to 3 percent of the hull's LOA. In the case of the 38i model, that freeboard will be 13.68 inches.
